PARKING CHARGE NOTICE INFORMATION

On 31/10/2025 the vehicle:  entered Eastgate Shopping Centre - Basildon, at  and departed at  on 31/10/2025. The vehicle was parked on private land at Eastgate Shopping Centre - Basildon, Southernhay, Basildon, Essex, SS14 1AG, by remaining at the car park without authorisation, in accordance with the terms and conditions set out in the signage, the Parking Charge is now payable to Euro Car Parks (as the Creditor).

We are using the cameras to capture images of vehicles entering and leaving the car park to calculate their length of stay. The signage, which is clearly displayed at the entrance to and throughout the car park, states that this is private land and that the car park is managed by Euro Car Parks Ltd. The signage provides clear details of the terms and conditions associated with this car park by which those who park in the car park agree to be bound. The Parking Charge Notice has been issued as the vehicle was in breach of the terms and conditions set out in the signage and is now payable to Euro Car Parks Ltd (as the Creditor).

If you were not the driver at the time the Parking Charge Notice was issued, please provide full name and address of the driver in writing and pass the notice on to the driver. If you are a vehicle hire firm and the vehicle was hired out at the time the parking took place, please let us know and provide us with a copy of the hire agreement and a copy of a statement of liability signed by the hirer under that hire agreement.

If after 28 days beginning with the day after that on which this notice is given, the Parking Charge Notice has not been paid in full, we may pursue you for any Parking Charge amount that remains unpaid. Failure to make payment may result in additional costs being incurred through debt recovery and/or court action where further charges will be added. Failure to respond to this notice may lead to civil court action to recover the Parking Charge Notice. Non-payment of a Court Order may adversely affect your credit rating.

PROTECTION OF FREEDOMS ACT 2012

You are now notified under the paragraph 9(2)(b) of schedule 4 of the Protection of Freedoms Act 2012 that the driver of the motor vehicle is required to pay this parking charge in full.

You are advised that if, after the period of 28 days beginning with the day after that on which the notice is given (which is presumed to be the second working day after the Date Issued), the parking charge has not been paid in full and we do not know both the name and current address of the driver, we have the right to recover any unpaid part of the parking charge from you. This Notice is given to you under Paragraph 9(2)(f) of Schedule 4 of the Protection of Freedoms Act 2012 and is subject to our complying with the applicable conditions under Schedule 4 of that Act. If you do not provide the correct address for service of the driver, pass the notice on to the driver, we will pursue you for any Parking Charge amount that remains outstanding. Should you identify someone who denies they were the driver, we will pursue you for any Parking Charge amount that remains outstanding.
